

12th Annual John B. Hoy, Jr. Memorial Charity Golf Tournament

On September 28, 2012, Wayne Township Landfill (WTL) held its 12th annual John B. Hoy, Jr. Memorial Charity golf tournament. 134 golfers participated in the afternoon tournament. The tournament raised $11,341 for two local charities, Clinton County Relay for Life and the Clinton County Shine Club, with each receiving $5,670. The tournament is held each year and since inception has generated over $83,000 to local charitable organizations which benefit the residents of Clinton County.

Wayne Township Landfill would like to thank all of the following local businesses who supported the annual event: McTish, Kunkel & Associates, Highway Equipment & Supply Co., Henry Dunn, Inc., Deacon Equipment Co., Commonwealth Drilling Co., BAI Group, Inc., Range Resources, Glenn O. Hawbaker, Harger Utility Contractors, Inc., Haas Building Solutions, McCarthy Tire Service, M&R Contracting, Kroff Chemical Company, Groff Tractor & Equipment, Hanna Electric/Tri-M Group, Northern Tier Solid Waste Authority, Cleveland Brothers Equipment Co., L/B Water Service, Susquehanna Motor Co., Ken's Truck Repair, First National Bank of PA, and Lundy Construction Co.

From L to R:Thresa Walker, golf tournament coordinator; Jay Alexander, WTL's General Manager; Cindy VanGorder, for Clinton County Relay for Life; and James Maguire, Sr., Clinton County Solid Waste Authority Board Chairman.

From L to R: Thresa Walker, golf tournament coordinator, James Moore and Doug Brush for Clinton County Shrine Club; James Maguire, Sr., Clinton County Solid Waste Authority Board Chairman, and Jay Alexander, WTL's General Manager.